Rochester, N.Y. (WHAM) - A management consulting firm will be moving its U.S. headquarters to Rochester.

BizXL Solutions announced Monday it will be opening its new office on N. Clinton Avenue in Rochester.

The firm said it will be adding 43 jobs over the next five years.

The move, which will cost $730,000, is being offset by up to $700,000 in tax credits through Empire State Development.

BizXL Solutions works with companies in the financial services, healthcare, manufacturing and start-up industries. BizXL also has locations in New York City and Toronto.
